

IV- This protocol shall not cause any binding financial obligation for either party.

V- Signature of this protocol shall not cause any obligation for either party to enter into any specific agreement relating to cooperation between two universities.

VI- In case that research results impacting upon matters of intellectual property rights are expected to arise in the course of collaborative projects within the scope of this protocol, the parties shall enter into an additional protocol governing the conditions regarding the treatment of intellectual property rights so arising, prior to the start of the collaborative project in question.

VII- The execution of this protocol shall be subject to the laws in force in each party's country. The parties are responsible for obtaining the required in-house or other approvals in accordance with the legislation they are subjected.

VIII- This protocol shall be in effect for five years following the date of signature. This protocol may be complemented or amended by the written and common consent of authorized representatives of both universities and additional protocols to this protocol. The Addenda or amendments will not be valid unless it is written and signed. The protocol may be extended for another five years by written and signed consent of the parties.

IX- Each university shall reserve the right to terminate the protocol by issuing a written notice six months in advance to the other party. In that case, on-going projects shall be completed.

This protocol shall become effective after signing by the authorized representatives of both universities. This memorandum of Understanding is documented in two originals in English, all two texts being equally valid.
